(As introduced in the Council by Rai Brojendra Mohan Maitra Bahadur, M.L.C.)

We, the members of the Select Committee to which the Advocates' Robes Bill, 1941, was referred by a motion carried in the Council on the 24th September, 1943, have the honour to submit this our Final Report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. Matters recommended by us to be omitted have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters recommended by us to be inserted have been underlined.

2. The Committee met for the first time on the 23rd November, 1943, and concluded their sitting on the 24th November, 1943.

3. The Bill has not been altered by our recommendation to an extent requiring republication.

4. The Bill was published after introduction in the Calcutta Gazette of the 1st January, 1942, under rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules.

5. The changes made by us are detailed below :—

Long Title and Preamble.—We have added a long title and have redrafted the Preamble to make it more explicit.

Clause 1.—We have made slight drafting changes in this clause and have renumbered it as sub-clause (1) of clause 1

Clause 2.—We have omitted the provision regarding the date on which the Act is to come into operation leaving it to the provisions of the General Clauses Act and have redrafted this clause. We have renumbered this clause as sub-clause (2) of clause 1 of the Bill.

Clause 3.—We have made only slight drafting changes in this clause and renumbered it as clause 2.

Clause 4.—We have redrafted this clause and renumbered it as clause 3. We have also made the wearing of such robes by Advocates when appearing in their professional capacity before any Court, compulsory after the expiry of six months after the termination of the war or six months after the coming into force of the Act, whichever is the later. We have added a proviso

Minute of Dissent by Mr. Bankim Chandra Datta, M. L. C.

Unavoidable circumstances took me away from town for about three months and as such I could not have any notice of the meetings held by the Select Committee

It is one of those very few Bills which is not for the general benefit of the people and is based on an imaginary grievance born of an inferiority complex

The sponsor of the Bill does not apparently seek the unification of the Bar as this Bill want only uniformity in robes among practitioners in the Calcutta High Court leaving the other classess of lawyers to shift for themselves

The following classes of lawyers practise in the various Courts of Bengal –

(i) Vakils
(ii) District Court Pleaders, Small Cause Court Pleaders and Police Court Pleaders
(iii) Mukhtears
(iv) Revenue Court Agents
(v) Solicitors
(vi) Barristers.

It is somewhat obscure as to what he (sponsor of the Bill) means by saying that ' as a necessary step towards the creation of a united Bar, there should be a uniform robe for Advocates of the High Court' This clearly shows that he does not like the idea that the High Court Vakils or Advocates should wear the same robes as the District Court Pleaders or Mukhtears etc

The Barristers have, from time immemorial, had a distinctive robe worn by them all over the world There is no reason why they should be deprived of the same or that others should be allowed to copy them.

The matter of robes, if I may say so, is a domestic matter for the learned Chief Justice and the Judges of the Hon'ble High Court They have, after hearing all concerned, exercised discretion and prescribed certain modes of robes for lawyers practising in that Court and I venture to submit that a piece of legislation like this would be a direct interference with the jurisdiction of the Hon'ble High Court and should not have been introduced in this Legislature

The Indian Bar Councils Act has dealt with the status of the Barristers and Advocates of the High Court as also the question of seniority among them and thereafter there should be no grievance against the Barristers at all This cry for the same robes for all, is, I regret, born of an imaginary grievance, possibly among a very few members, inasmuch as a large number of the Vakils or Advocates would never grudge the robes as they can stand in their own merits, without caring for this or that robe.

It is a mere cry for the shadow and the valuable time of the Legislature should not have been wasted by such an unnecessary piece of legislation.

[NOTE.—All matters omitted by the Select Committee have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters inserted have been underlined.]

THE ADVOCATES' ROBES BILL, [1941] 1943.

to prescribe a uniform robe for wearing in Court by Advocates.

WHEREAS it is expedient to [help in the creation of a unified Bar for the Province of Bengal and as a necessary step towards that end to prescribe a uniform robe for] provide for ensuring the uniformity of the robes to be worn by Advocates of the High Court when appearing in any Court including the High Court in their professional capacity*[,]*;

[it] It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act [shall] may be called the Advocates' Robes Act, 1943.

[2. This Act shall come into operation in this whole of Bengal on the day on which it is published in the "Calcutta Gazette" and it shall apply to all Advocates enrolled as such in the High Court.]

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

XXXVIII of 1926.

[4. Within a period to be prescribed by the High Court not being more than three months from the date on which this Act comes into force the High Court shall prescribe one uniform robe for all Advocates appearing in Court without reference to any other robe such Advocates might be entitled to wear as a member of any learned body.]

High Court to prescribe uniform robe for Advocates.

3. Notwithstanding that any Advocate may be entitled to wear any particular robe by virtue of his being a member of any legal body or association, the High Court shall prescribe within six months after the coming into force of this Act one uniform robe for wear by Advocates of the High Court when appearing in their professional capacity before any Court including the High Court and no Advocate of the High Court shall, after the expiry of six months after the termination of the present war or six months after the coming into force of this Act whichever is the later, when so appearing, wear any robe other than the one so prescribed:

Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the Advocate-General of India or the Advocate-General of any Province in India.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It appears that the question of robes for its Advocates has long been agitating the High Court at least since 1929.

While trying to dispose of the matter in the interests of uniformity the Court made rules which led not to uniformity but really to diversity. At present there are three classes of robes worn in the High Court—

(i) An Advocate's robe prescribed by the Court,

(ii) A Barrister's gown,

(iii) A blue gown prescribed by the Court in 1907 for Vakils.

Recently there have been instances where the Court has itself not followed its own rules.

The idea for a long time has been to have a self-contained Indian Bar. Uniformity in robes is a step towards that end.

This Bill is therefore introduced to secure that end.

BROJENDRA MOHAN MAITRA,

Member-in-charge.

(iv) Revenue Court Agents.

(v) Solicitors.

(vi) Barristers.

It is somewhat obscure as to what he (sponsor of the Bill) means by saying that "as a necessary step towards the creation of a united Bar, there should be a uniform robe for Advocates of the High Court". This clearly shows that he does not like the idea that the High Court Vakils or Advocates should wear the same robes as the District Court Pleaders or Mukhtears, etc.

The Barristers have, from time immemorial, had a distinctive robe worn by them all over the world. There is no reason why they should be deprived of the same or that others should be allowed to copy them.

The matter of robes, if I may say so, is a domestic matter for the learned Chief Justice and the Judges of the Hon'ble High Court. They have, after hearing all concerned, exercised discretion and prescribed certain modes of robes for lawyers practising in that Court and I venture to submit that a piece of legislation like this would be a direct interference with the jurisdiction of the Hon'ble High Court and should not have been introduced in this Legislature.

The Indian Bar Councils Act has dealt with the status of the Barristers and Advocates of the High Court as also the question of seniority among them and thereafter there should be no grievance against the Barristers at all. This cry for the same robes for all, is, I regret, born of all imaginary grievance, possibly among a very few members; inasmuch as a large number of the Vakils or Advocates would never grudge the robes as they can stand in their own merits, without caring for this or that robe.

It is a mere cry for the shadow and the valuable time of the Legislature should not have been wasted by such an unnecessary piece of legislation.

Third and Final Forecast of the Winter Rice Crop of Bengal, 1943-44.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1941-42, the area under winter rice in Bengal has represented some 20·7 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in India.)

Character of the season.—Since the issue of the Second Forecast in December last, the weather has been favourable for harvesting the crop.

Acreage.—According to District Officers' estimates the total area under winter rice is 18,176,700 acres as against 16,207,100 acres of last year.

Outturn.—From the summary of the district returns appended it will be seen that seven districts report bumper crop and the rest normal outturn of 100 per cent

The provincial outturn is estimated to be 103 per cent. of the normal as against 68 per cent. of the last year

Accepting 103 per cent. as the provincial outturn, the gross yield of the crop, on the basis of the normal yield of 12¾ maunds of clean rice (husked) per acre, is estimated at 8,528,100 tons this year against 5,020,100 tons in the last year.

39. Annadasankar Ray.—অপসরণ—

Apasaraṇ. [Exit.] The sixth and the last book of the series known as "Satyāsatya" or "Badal-Sudhi-Ujjayini" narrating a story of psychological interest. This volume depicts the problems raised far, being brought to a head. The heroine is seen to be under a great mental agitation which gives her no rest in America where she went for vocational study as shown in the preceeding book "Martyer Svarga", makes her wish for her husband's slip so as to afford her an opportunity of a divorce, makes her suddenly hurry back to London to the surprise of all, and even leads her to commit a slip, however slight in surrendering herself to the embrace of a male friend of hers. Her husband also, who has all along exhibited a morbid attachment to his own peculiar ideals, has in the meantime, sunk to the life of a petty hawker selling match boxes and living in a lowly habitation and company, as a logical consequence of his ideas. The heroine's friend and benefactor separate from his beloved for reasons of an unbridgeable difference of opinion, and is anxious on account of the heroine who expresses a desire to get rid of her husband and to live with him under his protection as a sister. The problematical situation thus brought to a head is saved by the timely but tragic death of the hero, which puts an end to the question of any possibility or otherwise of a reunion of the couple and at the same time brings to light the deep, suppressed love of the heroine who has hitherto remained an enigma to her friends and relatives. Published by Gopaldas Majumdar, D. M. Library, 42, Cornwallis Street, Calcutta. 1349 sāl or 1942-43 A.D. (23-5-1942.) Pages 5+3+331. Double Crown 16mo. 1st edition. Re. 2-8-0. Copies 1,100.

The zamindar, in due course realizing the ultimate object of the conspiracy returned all her properties and got her married with the lover and dismissed the wicked naib as a punishment for his selfish motive. 96. Manomohan Ghosh, M.A., Ph.D.—বাংলা গদ্যের চার যুগ—

Baṁlā Gadyer Cār Yug. [Four eras of Bengali prose.] Traces the growth and development of Bengali prose. Points out that the history of Bengali prose may be taken to have virtually begun in the beginning of the nineteenth century that is from 1801, as no available literary work in prose prior to that time is considered worthy of recognition. Suggests that the history of the evolution of Bengali prose may conveniently be divided into four eras, e.g., Rammohan era from 1801 to 1843, Tatvabodhini era from 1843 to 1872, Bankim era from 1872 to 1892 and Rabindra era from 1892 to the present time, and treats the subject accordingly in this light showing how one era has flowed into the succeeding one thereby making a connected whole. Published by Kshitish Chandra Das Gupta, Das Gupta & Co., 54-3, College Street, Calcutta. 1942. (18-5-1942.) Pages 13+287. Demy 8vo. 1st edition. Re. 3-0-0-. Copies 500.

Deś-rakṣi Bāhinī [Home Guards]—Suggests that India has got to be alert to the danger of Japanese aggression and to resolve to resist it. The only way to deal successfully with this Fascist aggression on India is to form a strong force of Home Guards much on the lines of the Chinese mass movement which has given an ample demonstration of what courage and determination of the people can do in the case of an ill-armed people against a force vastly superior in equipments. India is said to labour under the drawback of being governed by a foreign power which will not hand over to the people of the country the necessary armaments. But the people need not be daunted on this account as the country has an immense man-power which can be well utilised in country's defence provided it is infused with a strong determination and moral force. Finally it discusses the formation of Home Guards, their techniques and tactics and the services for which they can be utilised. Published by Satyabrata Chatterjee, Fascist Birodhi Jana-Sangha, 249D, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta. (15-5-1942.) Pages 31. Double Crown 16mo. 1st edition. Re. 0-5-0. Copies 1,000.

183. Ajit Ray.—ভারতের মুক্তি সংগ্রাম—

Bhārater Mukti-Samgrām. [India's war of independence]—Purports to show that the present war is also the war of independence for India. Warns against the belief said to be current in a section of the Indian people, that Japan will hand over independence to India. Japan is an Imperialist power and as such cannot but ultimately help Fascist Germany in her attempt to crush Russia which is the ideal country for the masses. Refers to Britain's hesitation to arm India although her assistance is very necessary in the present war, as the armed and united people cannot only resist Fascist aggression but also destroy imperialism. Indian interests are linked with those of Russia and China and she cannot do to sit idle depending upon the leaders of different political groups when the war for her own freedom is raging outside and is even knocking at her doors. Students are also called upon to exert themselves for uniting the masses on the basis of nationalism. Holds out the hope that the war for the liberation of humanity will be a success if India can unitedly and determinedly rise to take her stand in this war and that Britain will soon be constrained to accede to the demands of India owing to internal and external pressure. Points out that independence is a thing to be achieved and not to be got as a gift and refers to the failure of Cripp's mission as a fact indicating that force and not compromise can obtain any thing for India. 184. Barendranath Chatarji.—বর্তমান যুদ্ধের স্বরূপ—

Barttaman Yuddher Svarūp. [Nature of the present war]—Presents a study of the nature of the present war with a view to create an anti-Fascist mentality in the Indian masses. Condemns Fascism which is said to be fighting in the interests of a class and not in that of the masses. Russia's entry in the war against Fascist Germany has changed the phase of the war to that of a people's war. Indian people is asked to understand that helping Britain in this war does not mean helping Imperialism or foreign and native self-seekers, but means fighting for the independence of the masses by joining hands with that power in England which is fighting Fascism. Refers to Japan's designs and her policy, warns people against keeping faith in the spirits of resignation, fatalism and non-violence all of which are said to encourage weakness. Exhorts the masses to shake off the spirit of bargaining and to unite and organise with the conviction that it is their duty to defend their country with a firm determination which goes a long way to build up a power of resistance as demonstrated by China in her defence against Japan. Me Dibase Maymansinha-Janaganer Prati Duniyār Phyāsist Birodhīder Ahvān. [Call of the Anti-Fascists of the world to the masses of Mymensingh (district) on the May Day]—An Exhortation to the people of Mymensingh on the 1st May, 1942, to unite against Fascist aggression with the consciousness that the present war is being fought for the liberation of the entire suffering humanity on the one hand and for the destruction of imperialism on the other, and at the same time to realise that Japan is an enemy of Bengal and as such must be resisted at all costs. Points out that the path to Swaraj will be easier if the people of Bengal can acquire power by shouldering the responsibility of the defence of the province against Japanese aggression. Also mentions a few salient requirements for the object, viz., union between the Congress and the League, establishment of a national government, improved A. R. P. organisation, together with a suitable rousing slogan. Published by Sunirmal Sen, Saraju Press, Mymensingh. (30-4-1942.) Pages 12. Double Crown 16mo. 1st edition. Price— . Copies 3,500.

187. Rezaul Karim, M.A., B.L.—পাকিস্থানের বিচার—

Pākisthāner Bicār [Examination of Pakistan]—A criticism of the Pakistan scheme. Shows that the scheme means to partition India into Hindu and Muslim areas, that it has been conceived in a spirit of revenge and that it has been launched after a long preparation in furtherance of the divide and rule policy of the British rule, at the secret instigation of the British who mean to remain in the dark and enjoy the benefits. India is one and undivided and all its peoples inspite of their minor differences comprise but one nation and so the object of the scheme is bound to be defeated as its supporters well-know that it is untenable. Attempt is also made to point out its defects and it is shown that the scheme fails to set its ideals in clear terms, to consider the economic conditions involved and to appreciate or safeguard properly even the Muslim interests in whose name it is being pushed. While discussing the secret objects of the scheme it is pointed out among other things, that it means to frustrate the Congress demand for constituent Assembly by keeping alive an agitation against it, to spread communalism in the frontier to frustrate all sorts of political struggles of the Congress and to wound the feelings of non-Muslims so that they may stand against the Muslims thereby making the gulf wider and wider, and the possibility of their fusion all the more remote. faith in Japan's liberality and intention of giving freedom to India. Points out the necessity of consciously and carefully understanding the duty awaiting people of India in this crisis when Japan is knocking at the very doors of India and exhorts the people to realise that the responsibility of defending India lies on the shoulders of the peoples themselves, that present war is a war for the deliverance of the masses of the world and that the only way left for the Indian masses is to oppose Fascism by joining the war with which the fate of this country is linked. Jillur Rahman, Allama—মহাসমরের অবসানে—Mahāsamarer Abasane [On the termination of the Great War]—A booklet based on the teachings of the Gita, intended for the mission of the Qadiani sect, containing advocacy for adhesion to the creed of Qadianism as preached by Mirza Gholam Ahmad of Qadian who is alleged to have claimed to be the Kalki (the god of destruction, i.e., the destructive aspect of Sri Krishna) for the Hindu, Mahdi for the Muslims and the promised Messiah for the Christians. It is held that they are the one and the same person and he is Ahmad who appeared in India and whose watchword was to weld the mankind into one and single human race through the teachings of Muhammad and to eliminate impiety, injustice and aetheism from the face of the earth. On the termination of this war, it is stated, a new civilization will spring up out of the ruins of the old civilization and as, according to the Qadiani creed, the prophecy of the Gita regarding the appearance of the Sri Krishna in the form of Kalki has been fulfilled in Ahmed who was born in India, India will take the lead of the world in establishing peace and kingdom of God on earth and she alone will win the religious struggle on the termination of the second world war. 297. Sex Life of Man and Woman—Pleads for a liberal change in the old school outlook on sex which has hitherto been regarded as a thing both sinful and shameful. Holds that sex is an important and dominating factor of life and that as such it should be given an enlightened consideration so that social taboo on it may be removed not only for the recognition of man's unalienable rights to a free scope for the natrual sexual instinct, but also for a proper mental development of children who are often led astray by their natural inquisitiveness about sex. Attempts also to answer the question "what is love," and regards prostitution as a social safeguard. Refers to the physical, e.g., grandular, metabolical, functional emotional and the intellectual diffrences between man and woman, to the views about the purpose of the pubic hair to the human organs of reproduction, as also to the process of conception. Offers outlines of naked bodies of both sexes with voluptuous appeal apparently for the purpose of rousing passion. Published by the printer, 11C, Rajendralal Street, Calcutta. 317. Agriculture under Capitalism. A study of the Marxist views on the economic aspect of the conditions of agriculture under Capitalism. Capitalism is held to lead to ever increasing "ruralisation" and to a divorce of industry from agriculture. Exploitation is carried on in the field of agriculture leading to increasing indebtedness and giving rise to the class of wage earners. Large scale agriculture also is a harmful incident of capitalism although in Russia it is a blessing owing to a different system of ownership of land. Attention is drawn to the causes of impoverishment of farmers under capitalism and suggestion is made as to the necessity of an alliance between peasants and workers both of whom are said to be exploited under capitalism. Edited by Girin Chakravarty. Published by Pyari Das, National Book Agency, 72, Harrison Road, Calcutta. (27-5-1942.) Pages 20. Demy 8vo. 1st edition. Re. 0-4-0. Copies 1,000.

ORDER.

No. 4321L.R.—28th February 1944.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (bb) of sub-rule (2) of rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules, the Governor is pleased to make the following amendments in the Bengal Hotels and Lodging Houses Control Order, 1942, namely:—

Amendments.

(1) In paragraph 3 of the said Order, omit sub-paragraph (2).

(2) After paragraph 6 of the said Order, insert the following, namely:—

"6A. (1) An occupant of a room or rooms in an hotel or a lodging house shall not be evicted therefrom, whether in execution of a decree or otherwise, except in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) The manager of an hotel or the owner of a lodging house wishing to evict the occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house shall apply to the Controller for a direction in that behalf and if on receipt of such application the Controller is, after giving such occupant a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the application, satisfied—

(a) that such occupant has not paid the charges due by him to the full extent allowable under this Order within the time fixed in his contract with the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house, as the case may be, or in the absence of any such contract by the seventh day of the month next following that for which the charges are payable, or

(b) that such occupant has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance or an annoyance to the other occupants of such hotel or lodging house, or

(c) that such occupant has continuously for a period exceeding two months been absent from such hotel or lodging house or left such room or rooms unoccupied, the Controller shall make an order directing such occupant to vacate such room or rooms and to put the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house, as the case may be, in possession thereof, and if the Controller is not so satisfied, he shall make an order rejecting the application:

Provided that where the charges due by an occupant of a room or rooms in an hotel or a lodging house have accrued due before the second day of March 1944, no application by the manager of an hotel or the owner of a lodging house, as the case may be, for evicting such occupant shall lie under this sub-paragraph on the ground of failure to pay the charges so due if such occupant pays the said charges to the full extent allowable under this Order within two months from the said date.

6C. The fact that the management of an hotel or the interest of the owner of a lodging house has been transferred by assignment, sale or sub-letting shall not of itself be a ground for eviction of the occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house so long as the transferee maintains the hotel or lodging house as such.

6D. (1) Every proprietor or manager of an hotel or owner of a lodging house who intends to transfer or terminate a lease in respect of the premises in which such hotel or lodging house is situated shall give at least one month's notice of such intention to the Controller as well as to every occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house, as the case may be.

(3) It shall be competent for the Controller in every case a notice has been received by him under sub-paragraph (1) or an intimation has been received by him under sub-paragraph (2) to authorise any occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house to take charge of such hotel or lodging house and to hold the premises in which the said hotel or lodging house is situated as a lessee under the landlord thereof on the same terms and conditions on which the proprietor or manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house held the said premises under the said landlord or on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between such landlord and the occupants of such hotel or lodging house and any occupant so authorised shall be entitled to hold the premises on such terms and conditions as a lessee under the landlord.

(4) Any dispute between the landlord and such occupants in regard to the terms and conditions under which such premises shall be held shall be decided by the Controller and the Controller shall before deciding such dispute give to the parties concerned an opportunity of being heard and every such decision shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7, be final.

6E. For the purposes of an inquiry under this Order, the Controller may,— stowing, required in furtherance of the object of this Act, should be undertaken directly by the Board, the Board may execute or cause to be executed such measures under its own supervision.

(2) For the purposes of this section the Board shall have the right for itself and all persons employed in the execution of any work undertaken under this section to enter upon any property in which the work is to be done and to do therein all things necessary for the execution of the work.

(3) No person shall obstruct or interfere with the execution of any work undertaken under this section, and no person shall remove or tamper with any plant or machinery or any stowing or other material used in the execution of such work.

(4) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (3) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bill is intended to remedy certain defects disclosed in the working of the Coal Mines Safety (Stowing) Act, 1939.

The Coal Mines Stowing Board has sometimes in an emergency to execute protective measures under its own supervision, as where a mine is abandoned, or its ownership is in dispute, or the owner is not in a position to undertake protective measures himself. Specific provisions is lacking in the Act conferring the requisite powers for this purpose including the power to enter upon the property concerned; and protective works executed by the Board run the risk of being tampered with after they have been executed. Section 8 of the Act also fails to make clear that the Coal Mines Stowing Fund can be utilised to defray the cost of stowing operations when these are carried out by any other agency than the owner, agent or manager of the coal mine.

Under section 10 of the Act a colliery owner has a right of appeal against an order of the Chief Inspector or an Inspector under section 9(3) requiring him to undertake protective measures. He is, however, required to give effect to the order even though an appeal may be pending.

Clauses 2 and 4 of the Bill make the requisite provisions to remove the first of these defects, while clause 3 supplies a power to suspend the operation of an order requiring protective measures to be taken.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 524L.A.—4th March 1944.—With reference to the footnote at the end of the Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Bill, 1943, published with notification No. 361L.A., dated the 14th February 1944, in Part IV of the Calcutta Gazette of the 17th February 1944, it is hereby notified for general information that Mr. Mirza Abdul Hafiz, Member, Bengal Legislative Assembly, has subsequently submitted the following minute of dissent.

K. ALI AFZAL,
Secretary to the Bengal Legislative Assembly.

Minute of Dissent on the Select Committee Report of Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Bill, 1943, by Maulvi Mirza Abdul Hafiz, M.L.A.

Although I have agreed with many points of the report but still there are some in which case I most respectfully differ. I have tried to note some of them as follows though in a great haste. I reserve also the right to file amendments later on when required:—

1. With respect to the partial dedication, e.g., wakf-al-al-aulad—wakf for the family discendants has not been exempted from the operation of this Act as that portion only of the agricultural income actually applied to religious and charitable purposes has been exempted. Its result would be I apprehend that the public wakf far to speak of the private wakf the tendency of making which has already been decreased to a greater extent would very seldom be made by the generous Muslims and the wakf henceforth made still existing in tottering condition would gradually cease to exist. It also can be said that the people may be allowed to public charity only overlooking that to the family descendants. But that is unpractical and if so frequently made by a large number of people it would create a chaos and anomaly in the society increasing the number of labouring class and converting the nearest and dearest ones of the wakf executors into the day labourers. So in any case it won't be beneficial if the private wakf be not exempted.

2. The agricultural income of a wife or minor child derived from land transferred directly or indirectly by the husband or father shall be deemed to be the agricultural income of the latter and consequently be taxable under this Act. This would put a barrier to the normal course freely used so long specially among the Muslims. According to Muhammedan Law there is no joint family system and so the property once incorporated under this Act on or after the 15th day of January, 1937, shall commence business unless shares have been allotted to an amount sufficient to yield a sum of at least fifty thousand rupees as working capital, and unless a declaration duly verified by an affidavit signed by the directors and the manager that such a sum has been received by way of paid up capital has been filed with the registrar.

(2) No banking company, whether incorporated in or outside British India, if incorporated on or after the 15th day of January, 1937, shall, after the expiry of two years from the commencement of the Indian Companies (Amendment) Act, 1944, carry on business in British India unless it satisfies the following conditions, namely:—

(a) that the subscribed capital of the company is not less than half the authorised capital, and the paid up capital is not less than half the subscribed capital, and

(b) that the capital of the company consists of ordinary shares only, or ordinary shares and such preference shares as may have been issued before the commencement of the Indian Companies (Amendment) Act, 1944, only, and

(c) that the voting rights of all shareholders are strictly proportionate to the contribution made by the shareholder, whether a preference shareholder or an ordinary shareholder, to the paid up capital of the company."

4. Amendment of section 277L, Act VII of 1913.—In sub-section (4) of section 277L of the said Act, after the word, figures and letter "section 277H" the words, figures and letters "section 277HH, section 277I" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Certain undesirable features in the structure and management of banking companies have of late come to notice, such as—

(i) the appointment of managing directors or managers on long-term contracts on payment of remuneration by commission or a share in the profits.

(ii) the fixation of the authorised capital at a very high figure as compared with the subscribed and paid up capital,

(iii) the possession of large voting rights by an individual or a small group of individuals, usually partly-paid ordinary or deferred shareholders.

The first of these is contrary to the spirit of section 277H of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, though not at present expressly prohibited. The second gives the public a false impression of the status and importance of the bank. The third enables an individual or a small group of individuals to concentrate in his or their hands the control of the companies' activities, thereby facilitating the undertaking of unsafe or speculative business, to the detriment of the interests of the depositors.

2. It is desirable to remove these objectionable features by suitable amendments of the Indian Companies Act, 1913. At the same time, it is considered that some time should be given to the existing banking companies, which may be affected by the amendments, to adjust themselves to the requirements of the amended law.

3. The Bill makes the necessary provisions with a view to meeting the objects mentioned above.
